Prevention Quality Indicator (PQI) 92: Chronic Composite for Nassau County

PQI 92 is a composite of indicators for selected preventable diabetes, circulatory, and respiratory complications that result in hospitalization. PQIs draw from the Statewide Planning and Research Cooperative System (SPARCS) data, which is analyzed by the federal Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ), using that agency's specific algorithm. PQIs offer insight into the health of a community.