

Long Island Health Collaborative Attendance & Meeting Summary: August 7, 2019 | 9:30 - 11:30am

Member Attendance: See list attached

Welcome & Introductions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Member program descriptions for attending legislators 	Janine Logan, Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council/Long Island Health Collaborative, welcomes collaborative members and legislators to the August Long Island Health Collaborative Meeting. All members introduce themselves; 64 members are in attendance today, along with 3 state senators, 2 assemblymen, and 2 representatives. Legislators restored funding to the statewide PHIP program in this year's state budget and were on hand to see how the Long Island PHIP, known as the Long Island Health Collaborative, is coordinating population health activities for this region. Each legislator introduced themselves, the committees that they sit on, and which districts they serve. As each member introduced themselves, they had the opportunity to give a brief summary of their organization's mission, and showcase their efforts and successes to the senators and assemblymen.
Announcements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Kim's move to the big city 	Kim Whitehead, Manager, Communications and Operations, is leaving the PHIP in early August. Kim was the first member of the PHIP team, and played a vital role in our success for the last 4 years. Although we are extremely sad to see her leave, we wish Kim success in her new role as a PR Professional at a Manhattan-based healthcare public relations agency.

PHIP Refresher	Funded by the New York State grant, the Population Health Improvement Program, the Long Island Health Collaborative is a data resource organizer and analyzer, the core of population health coordination, and a connection to constituents. Through solutions-oriented approaches, we serve to follow the collective impact model, leverage diverse partners, foster linkages, promote VBP concept, eliminate redundancies, streamline practices, and aggregate data. Guided by the state’s Prevention Agenda, the data work group unanimously chose two priorities for the Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reducing incidence of chronic disease • Tackling mental health issues and substance use issues The LIHC’s current initiatives are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Long Island “Healthy Libraries” • Walk With a Doc • Long Island Community Health Assessment Survey • Cultural Competency and Health Literacy (CCHL)
Chronic Disease Self-Management Program Community Engagement Network Presented by Jose Moreno, CDSMP T-Trainer, Project Manager inyourcommunityNYC@gmail.com	The evidenced-based Chronic Disease Self-Management Program (CDSMP) workshops are being offered in the counties of Nassau and Suffolk under the sponsorship of the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council through its Long Island Health Collaborative, the population health initiative on Long Island that is funded by the New York State Department of Health.

	Community Engagement Network, LLC, has partnered with LIHC to offer the CDSMP to the Nassau and Suffolk communities in English and Spanish during the months of August through November 2019. LIHC is covering all costs associated with the workshops, and the workshop is completely free to hosting organizations. Workshops are being offered in English and Spanish to adults over 18 years of age at no cost to participants or partners. The CDSMP is a six-week interactive workshop that provides hands-on interactive and fun education for people and their families or care partners who are living with chronic conditions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The workshop is also geared for family members and partners who care for loved ones living with chronic diseases. • The program covers topics such as healthy eating, easy-to-follow physical activity exercises, stress management, medication management, and improving communications with their healthcare team among others in a supporting environment. • Workshops are once a week for 2.5 hours at your location (host sites). • Participants will receive a certificate of achievement, the book “Living a Healthy Life with Chronic Conditions” ($20.00 value) and a gift bag. If you are interested in hosting a site, contact Jose Moreno.
Recognition from Legislators	Assemblyman Andrew Raia, Senator John Brooks, Senator Anna Kaplan, Assemblymen Edward Ra, and representatives for Assemblywoman Michaelle Solages and Senator Phil Boyle address the collaborative. Each legislator congratulates all

	members of the collaborative on their successes, and thanks them for their tireless efforts in creating a healthier Long Island.
Partner Presentations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Association for Mental Health and Wellness presented by Anne Marie Montijo, LCSW, Deputy Director for Strategic Initiatives • Western Suffolk BOCES presented by Karyn Kirschbaum, Ph.D., School Health Policy Coordinator • Nassau Library System presented by Caroline Ashby, Director • Catholic Health Services of LI presented by Chris Hendriks, Vice President, Public Relations & Communications 	Four LIHC members highlight projects in which the collaborative was beneficial in attempt to illustrate to the legislators the value of the Long Island PHIP, from a regional health planning perspective, and how each organization has specifically benefited from its connection to the LIHC – now 100 plus members. Each of the 4 partners emphasize how communication with other organizations and the networking that stems from LIHC has played a crucial role in their programs’ successes.
Scholarship Opportunity	Janine Logan announces a scholarship opportunity from LIHC partner, Walk Safe Long Island that is open to high school juniors and seniors, and college freshmen and sophomores. The deadlines for scholarship entries is August 31st, 2019. For more information, visit https://www.walksafeli.org/video.
Adjournment	The 2019 Collaborative meeting dates are:

1. Wednesday, October 16, 2019
2. Thursday, December 12, 2019

Unless specified otherwise, meetings will take place at the Crossroads Corporate Park Conference Room at 1393 Veterans Memorial Highway in Hauppauge, NY. As always, we are incredibly thankful for all our members do to drive LIHC initiatives.

We look forward to seeing you all in October! ☺
