

Long Island Health Collaborative Attendance & Meeting Summary: March 18, 2020 | 9:30 - 11:30am

Welcome &amp; Introductions	Janine Logan, Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council/Long Island Health Collaborative, welcomes collaborative members to the March Long Island Collaborative Meeting. The meeting is held virtually, as concerns related to COVID-19 are extremely high.
New York State Budget Debate, Population Health – In the Midst of COVID-19 Presented by Wendy Darwell, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council WDarwell@nshc.org	NSHC policy expert Wendy Darwell provides a brief update about the budget negotiation process, the future of population health activities on Long Island, and how the COVID-19 response is impacting and will continue to impact the delivery of health and social services.
Updates <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Population Health Summit</li> <li>• Healthy Libraries project update</li> <li>• 2019 Full-year CHAS results</li> <li>• Status of the PHIP grant</li> </ul>	On Friday, February 28th, the LIHC held the first Long Island Population Health Summit at the Suffolk County Community College Grant Campus in Brentwood. Nearly 100 individuals representing hospitals, health clinics and other healthcare providers, public health agencies, health plans, universities, and businesses gathered to learn from our panelists about their experience with a healthcare housing pilot project happening now on Long Island. The Summit focused on the practicality of value-based purchasing arrangements for this region, and more broadly, the state’s vision for VBP as

	communicated by keynoter Ryan Ashe, Director of VBP and Healthcare Innovation, at the New York State Department of Health. In a collaboration with their academic partners, the LIHC has embarked on an asset mapping project to uncover the health- and social-service related programming occurring at public libraries throughout Nassau and Suffolk counties. All Suffolk county and Nassau county interviews have been completed. A final report is coming soon that will include qualitative analyses of all completed work. The full-year 2019 Community Health Assessment Surveys analysis has been completed, and is available on the LIHC website. A brief summary of the findings for the year can be found here. Janine Logan reports on the status of the PHIP grant. Currently, the Population Health Improvement is included in the state budget for a one-year extension, but the LIHC has created a sustainability plan in case the budget does not pass.
Adjournment	The 2020 Collaborative meeting dates are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Wednesday, June 17</li><li>2. Thursday, September 17</li><li>3. Wednesday, December 9</li></ol> The remaining 2020 meetings will take place at the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council Conference Room at 1383 Veterans Memorial Highway, Suite 26, in Hauppauge. As always, we are incredibly thankful for all our members do to drive LIHC initiatives.

We look forward to seeing you all in June! ☺

Also, please remember to send your event flyers and trainings to PHIP Population Health Coordinator, Cat Beeman (cbeeman@nshc.org).