

Long Island Health Collaborative Attendance & Meeting Summary: June 17, 2020 | 9:30 - 11:30am

Welcome &amp; Introductions	Janine Logan, Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council/Long Island Health Collaborative, welcomes collaborative members to the June Long Island Collaborative Meeting. The meeting is held virtually on Adobe Connect. Attendees introduce themselves by typing their names and organizations in the chat box.
Thank You Healthcare Workers and Essential Workers	The meeting begins with Janine Logan extending a thank you to all frontline and essential workers for their extreme sacrifices, hard work, and dedication to our community during the COVID-19 pandemic. There are no words to express our gratitude for these selfless individuals.
Updates <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Status of the PHIP grant</li> <li>• Interactive Data Tutorial</li> <li>• Healthcare Reopening Campaign</li> </ul>	Janine Logan reports on the status of the PHIP grant. Currently, the Population Health Improvement is included in the state budget for a one-year extension, but the LIHC has created a sustainability plan in case the budget does not pass. Funds from the State Department of Health are currently tied-up due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On July 16, from 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m., DataGen Principal Healthcare Informatics Analyst, Melissa Bauer, will host an interactive data tutorial on Adobe Connect. The tutorial will focus on managing the most recent SPARCS data, how to maneuver pivot tables, and how to pull relevant data. All LIHC members are invited to attend. More information and registration coming soon.

	On May 26th, the Suburban Hospital Alliance of New York State unveiled a healthcare reopening campaign, Responsive, Resilient, Ready. The campaign is meant to boost the public’s confidence in their local hospital’s ability to care for them and their family members in a safe and secure manner. SHANYS’ Responsive, Resilient, Ready social media-based campaign is designed to work in concert with each hospital’s particular reopening messaging. The messaging connects to the SHANYS reopening page, which hyperlinks to each hospital’s COVID-19 page. There, the public can read about the specific safety measures and infection control protocols each hospital has in place to keep all patients safe during their inpatient or outpatient visit. You can view the posts and the video here.
